

Unomachi is a district in Uwa, located halfway between Uwajima and Ozu. It prospered as a post town from around 1870 (Edo period), with a lively atmosphere created by a variety of shops, including inns, restaurants, sake breweries, and pharmacies.

宇和民具館 uwa mingu kan Uwa Folk and Historical Museum

祝・祭 -Festivals-

The Uwa Museum of Folk Tools is a facility that houses and displays around 6,000 items related to festival life and commerce used in Uwa between 1850 and 1950. Explore the history and culture of Uwa through these exhibits.

住 -Lifestyle-

February to March: Hina Matsuri

商 -Commerce-

衣 -Clothing-

食 -Food-

April to May: Tango no Sekku Exhibition

This space recreates a photo studio from around 1950 to 1970. You can enjoy a photo shoot in your favorite outfits.

Opening Hours: 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM (Last admission at 4:30 PM)
Closed: Mondays (or the following day if a public holiday) and New Year's holidays
Admission Fee: Adults 700 yen, High school and university students 420 yen, Free for middle school students and below (includes entry to Kaimei School)
Address: 3-106 Unomachi, Uwa Town, Seiyō City, Ehime Prefecture
Experience Programs: Toy rubber gun making experience 1,200 yen, Mini lantern making experience 600 yen
Inquiries: Uwa Folk Museum ☎ 0894-62-1334 e-mail: uwaminguken@seiyō-kankou.or.jp

You can learn about Japanese lifestyles of the past through the objects on display.

